

The National Forum for Black Public Administrators, Boston Chapter and
Black Faculty, Staff & Students Association,
University of Massachusetts Boston
present

Black Lives Matter: From Direct Action to Policy Action

Thursday, November 10, 2016, 5:30 – 7:30 PM
Grove Hall branch of Boston Public Library – Jazz Lounge
41 Geneva Ave., Dorchester 02121

Source: Boston Magazine, July 2016

<http://www.bostonmagazine.com/news/blog/2016/07/14/black-lives-matter-protest/>

Participants:

DiDi Delgado, Black Lives Matter Cambridge

Kristen Halbert, Civic Engagement Chair, Young Professionals
Network, Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts

Lydia Davenport, Coordinator, Black Student Center, University of Massachusetts Boston

Kylila, Poetic Change

This event is free and open to the public.

Space is limited, however – reserve a seat at <http://tinyurl.com/hz36ml4>

More information? Contact president@nfbpaboston.org

NATIONAL FORUM FOR BLACK PUBLIC ADMINISTRATORS
BOSTON CHAPTER

