

The National Forum for Black Public Administrators, Boston Chapter and the Massachusetts chapter of the American Society for Public Administration present:

Boston Ujima Project: Building a community-controlled economy through fundraising, capacity-building, organizing and advocacy

Wednesday, May 31, 2017, 5:30 – 7:30 PM

MassHousing conference room
One Beacon, 4th Floor, Downtown

Presenters:

Nia Evans, Director

Lor Holmes, General Manager, CERO Cooperative

Kiara Mark, Ujima Fellow

Teena Maria Johnson, Ujima Fellow and Steering Committee Member

This event is free and open to the public.

Refreshments will be served.

RSVP: <https://tinyurl.com/lj7lu6n> More information? Contact president@nfbpaboston.org

